

A note from:

December 15, 2014

On December 12, 2014, we were privileged to have comedian Rocky Whatule entertain us at the Foothill Area Holiday Party. Getting sometimes cynical police officers to laugh can be quite a chore. To do so without the use of profanity is a near impossibility. Yet that is precisely what happened on Friday. Rocky engaged the entire room and customized his act to appeal to our unique brand of humor. Our boss was the target of several well timed jokes, which always makes for a good time. He was energetic, heartfelt, respectful (most of the time ☺), and smart. After his act, he was not finished. He worked with the DJ to get people on to the dance floor, teaching several dances. This kind of personal interaction made the evening special.

Rocky Whatule was a great choice for our Holiday Party and would be appropriate for any setting. Thank you for making the men and women who proudly serve giggle, laugh, and smile.

Respectfully,

Brian
