To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to recommend the services of Rocky Whatule. His ability as an entertainer, specifically in comedy is amazing. He is funny, clean, Christ-honoring, and is trusted to communicate to the public on our behalf through video and live events.

Having performed together I believe he can handle any situation with tact, humor (when necessary) and with class.

Rocky's experience is evident and is simply great entertainment for the whole family. He is great in front of adults, teens and even little kids, relating on many levels to all ages. He is a good friend and I would recommend him highly.

Sincerely,

Andy Gregory
